MEMBER OF VIRGINIA CPA SOCIETY FREDERICK B. MALVIN, CPA OF MALVIN, RIGGINS & CO. PC NAMED “SUPER CPA” IN VIRGINIA BUSINESS MAGAZINE

Thousands of extraordinary certified public accountants (CPA) work in Virginia, but this year’s “Super CPA” contest in Virginia Business magazine identifies over 300 “best of the best” of the CPA profession. The Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants (VSCPA) is pleased to announce that VSCPA member Frederick B. Malvin, CPA of Malvin, Riggins & Co. PC was selected a winner in the small business consulting category of the prestigious contest. In its seventh year, Virginia Business partnered with the VSCPA to develop this special program to highlight Virginia’s top certified public accountants for their important contributions to the CPA profession and the prosperity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Virginia Business sent an official ballot to more than 7,000 Virginia CPAs asking them to identify the names of peers they considered to be the best at their craft. After the ballots were counted, 320 winners were selected in 12 categories and were highlighted in a special “Super CPAs” report in the November 2008 issue of Virginia Business.

Mr. Malvin is a retired Navy Commander with over 5000 flight hours logged. He earned his undergraduate degree from The College of William and Mary and Masters Degrees from George Washington University and the Naval War College. He attended graduate school at American University and completed Master of Taxation courses at the Marshall-Wythe School of Law.

He is Past President of the Virginia Peninsula Boys and Girls Clubs, as well as Past Chairman of the Club's Foundation. He is Past Chairman of the Peninsula Drug Rehabilitation Services and the Friends of the Homeless. He serves on the Board of the William and Mary Tribe Club, is Past Chair of the William and Mary Olde Guard Council, Past Treasurer of the William and Mary Alumni Society (Williamsburg Chapter), Past Treasurer of the St. Stephen Episcopal Church Foundation, and is a member of the Order of the White Jacket and the Quarterback Club. He is currently treasurer of American Legion Post 39, Virginia Peninsula Military Officers Association and the Waterman's Museum. Fred is married to the former Donna Wright; they live in Kingsmill, Williamsburg.
