

Pelican Poop Sheet

Volume I

October 30, 2007

Shipmates,

The 2007 reunion has come and gone and I think everybody that attended had a great time and is looking forward to the next one. The Chief Val Ready Room was a very busy place and a lot of time was spent looking over the memorabilia. The banquet on Monday night started off with Sandra and Ralph Nephew getting everybody in the mood with a home-made wine and cheese tasting party in the ready room. The dinner was excellent and the DJ got to go home early because everybody ended up back in the ready room and it didn't shut down till after 1:00 A. M. You can go to our home page and see pictures of the reunion, click on "photo", click on "reunion 2007", then go to "banquet" or "miscellaneous." Once again thanks to Ray Beck, our webmaster, for maintaining a great home page. We now have a "old" new name for our newsletter as you can see at the top of the page. While looking through some of the various publications in the Ready Room, Jeff Snavelly found some old newsletters for the late 1950's and early 1960's. He suggested we start using this for our current newsletter, so we start a new era with this issue. Plans are in the works for a mini reunion in Pigeon Forge, TN sometime in 2008 and the bi-annual reunion in Tucson, AZ in 2009. I will keep you posted via the newsletter or keep your eye on the home page for further details. You will also see in the business minutes some additions coming to the Pelican Shop. I've ordered the following new items: mouse pads, Marlin golf shirts, new aircrew hats with wings on front of cap, and coffee mugs. All these new items should be on the home page before Thanksgiving so keep checking. Those of you that do not have email or some access to get to our home page, please let me know and I will print out the Pelican Shop listing for you and get it in the mail.

The next newsletter will come out about February 2008, so I want to wish all of you and your family Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, and Happy New Year.

Subject: Legislation Allows Veterans to Salute the Flag

All,

Just thought that I would pass the word on new legislation allowing veterans and service members not in uniform to salute the flag. This may seem like a small change, but I will now render a smart hand salute to the flag during all appropriate public events. I would ask you to pass this on to any current service member or veteran.

Inhofe Legislation Allows Veterans to Salute the Flag

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Senator Jim Inhofe (R-Okla.) today praised the passage by unanimous consent of his bill (S.1877) clarifying U.S. law to allow veterans and servicemen not in uniform to salute the flag. Current law (US Code Title 4, Chapter 1) states that veterans and servicemen not in uniform should place their hand over their heart without clarifying whether they can or should salute the flag.

“The salute is a form of honor and respect, representing pride in one’s military service,” Senator Inhofe said. “Veterans and service members continue representing the military services even when not in uniform. “Unfortunately, current U.S. law leaves confusion as to whether veterans and service members out of uniform can or should salute the flag. My legislation will clarify this regulation, allowing veterans and servicemen alike to salute the flag, whether they are in uniform or not. “

I look forward to seeing those who have served saluting proudly at baseball games, parades, and formal events. I believe this is an appropriate way to honor and recognize the 25 million veterans in the United States who have served in the military and remain as role models to others citizens. Those who are currently serving or have served in the military have earned this right, and their recognition will be an inspiration to others.”

Please not, the last I heard this passed the Senate but is still up for vote in the house.

Combat Aircrew Roll of Honor

Just make this information known at the reunion, especially the business meeting. The Enlisted Combat AC Roll of Honor was started in the 90s and as far as I know had not honored any of our veterans from WW2 especially Midway. Dick Watson is the first to be honored here. I want to get CDR Ellis Skidmore and any other who qualifies inducted. This information should also be in the newsletter for those who may qualify. You may use me as a contact.

Retired Enlisted Association

The Retired Enlisted Association (TREA) is providing comprehensive Military Reunion Listings as a FREE service to the veteran community. I search the internet looking for reunions and send a request for their information to the listed Point of Contact. I sent 2,162 reunion organizations, all service branches, e-mails requesting information on their 2006 reunions, and unfortunately 35 % failed to respond. We have 1,398 listings on the 2006 Completed Reunion Listing. With the last listing update, Aug 6th, we have over 1400 reunion listings for calendar years 2007, 08, 09,10, and 2011.

Please take a look at our reunion listings on, www.trea.org, scroll down the left side, click on Reunions/Buddies, and this will bring up the reunion page. As reunions are completed, at the end of the month they are transferred to the Completed Listing. There, they will remain as a reference point for someone looking for a unit contact.

Please scroll down to page two for a Military Reunion Listing poster I created. Wouldn't it be great if it were posted in every Legion, and VFW post or anywhere else Veterans will see it.

I appreciate any help you can provide in spreading the word to the Veterans.

Pentagon Plans to Drop ID Card SSAN

Last year, MOAA urged the House and Senate Armed Services Committees to explore options to protect servicemembers from identity theft by removing the Social Security account number (SSAN) from military ID cards.

The fallout was a provision in the FY2007 Defense Authorization Act that tasked the Pentagon for a report and recommendations on how to address this pressing issue.

The Pentagon report, forwarded to Congress in July by Under Secretary of Defense (Personnel and Readiness) David Chu, cited the difficulties of moving entirely away from use of the SSAN, which is fundamental to all of the services' personnel records and innumerable embedded networks of security and record-keeping systems.

However, it acknowledged that the current system poses problems that need to be addressed and said the Defense Department intends to phase out the use of the printed SSAN on ID cards over the next several years.

The plan is to move to an ID card that would print only the last four digits of the SSAN, with the full SSAN electronically encrypted on the card. This would provide additional protection to the individual members while still preserving data deemed essential for hundreds of purposes, from validating commissary check purchases to confirming the identities of prisoners of war.

The reason for the multi-year phase-out is to allow time to convert the large numbers of hardware and software systems to conform to the new card, and also to allow a phased replacement of more than three million ID cards of current members, retirees, family members, and survivors so ID card facilities aren't overwhelmed.
